Mayor Koen Schuiling will perform the opening of the exhibition PINK PASSION!

The exhibition PINK PASSION shows watercolors and paintings by Daniel Torrent (Barcelona) and pencil drawings by Antti Eric Joronen (Helsinki/Tallinn).

The artists both live exactly 1355 km away from Groningen as the crow flies.

This exhibition is part of the Pink Saturday and QUEER YEAR Groningen.

In his work Daniel Torrent (1994) tries to show what those who love each other do, when no one is looking. Bodies that communicate without words, that move intuitively adapting to each other. Everyday moments without epicness, far from individualism and competitiveness, that we keep to ourselves, avoiding displaying them to others. Hence, his concept of art is a way to connect directly and emotionally with other people, recognizing through his work everything that we as humans have in common.

At the core of Antti Eric Joronen's (1984) artistic ethos lies a profound commitment to homoerotic aesthetics, through which he endeavors to articulate a story of inclusive gender equality and freedom. This thematic confluence is not merely a choice but a calling, as he aspires to create art that resides at the intersection of historical reverence and contemporary inclusivity. Each piece he creates is a testament to this fusion, seeking to offer a unique perspective that both honors the past and boldly advocates for a future where diversity and equality are not only recognized but celebrated.
